DL329S

In order to change the gender marker on your Driver's License or ID Card, you need to fill out form DL329S. You need to fill this form out even if you have a court order changing your gender. The gender marker you select here doesn't have to match your court order or any other documents.

- Under Name, put your legal name. If you're changing your name as well, use your new name here.
- Under Date of Birth, put your date of birth
- Under CA Driver License/Identification Card Number, put the number listed on your Driver's License or ID Card.
- Under Mailing Address, put the address where you receive mail from the DMV. Use your new address if you're changing that as well.
- Under Residence Address, put the address where you live. Use your new address if you're changing that as well.
- Where it asks what gender you're requesting, select the gender you're changing to
- Sign and date the form
- Leave the DMV Use Only section blank
